Bombs Away Opens Tomorrow! Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe's Thrilling New Dual Drop Slides debut Memorial Day Weekend.

Greensboro Water Park to debut all-new thrilling Bombs Away slides on May 28.

Greensboro, North Carolina [May 27, 2022] – Wet 'n Wild guests can look forward to a 2022 Season that will be the park's biggest and best yet, headlined by the debut of two all-new thrilling Bombs Away slides.

The thrilling Bombs Away drop slides debut with two unique experiences. Riders can pick between a straight-speed six-story, 70 degree drop, and a twisting, turning loop through a closed-tube 300-foot-long fly-by at similarly supersonic speeds. Choose your drop tube and feel the anticipation build until... the floor disappears from under you! Then, head back up to try the other slide on this doubly fun new attraction.

Season Passholders will get the VIP treatment during Memorial Day weekend as Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe celebrates the Grand Opening of Bombs Away. The Carolinas' Largest Waterpark will open an hour early exclusively for Season Passholders from May 28 – 30 so these VIPs can enjoy exclusive ride time on Bombs Away and time in Thunder Bay Wave Pool. Plus, music, games and sweet prizes to celebrate the start of Wet 'n Wild's biggest and best season yet.

“With the debut of the new Bombs Away slides, new special events, and Season Passholder exclusives, now is the perfect time to purchase a Season Pass and find fun all summer with us.” says General Manager Adam Good.

The best value for visiting Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe will be found with a Season Pass. Gold Season Passes offer unlimited visits all year, unlimited drops on the all-new Bombs Away, free parking, free friend tickets and other great perks.
