Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe Hiring 600 Team Members for the 2025 Season
Team Members to Help Kick Off Another Epic Summer at the Carolinas' Favorite Water Park

GREENSBORO, NC – April 1, 2025 – Summer is almost here, and Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe is preparing to open for another thrilling season of water-filled fun. On Saturday, May 24, the park will open its gates to guests, and Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe is looking to hire over 600 Team Members to help make this summer unforgettable.

To get ready for the action, the park will host a Job Fair on Tuesday, April 5 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Administration Office (located just to the right of the Main Gate). This event provides the perfect opportunity to meet with management, learn about available positions, and discover all the exciting perks of working at Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe.

“We’re excited to kick off another amazing season, and we need an energetic, passionate team to help us create fun memories for our guests,” said Adam Good, General Manager of Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe. “With great pay, flexible schedules, and tons of benefits, it’s a fantastic opportunity to work in a fast-paced, rewarding environment.”

Lifeguards are a key focus for Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe’s recruitment efforts this season. No prior experience is necessary as the park provides paid training. Other available positions include food and beverage staff, cooks, bartenders, servers, custodians, ride attendants, and more.

The park is hiring individuals who are 15 years old and up, and no prior experience is required for many roles. Whether you’re looking for your first job, returning for another summer of fun, or seeking a part-time gig, Wet 'n Wild Emerald Pointe offers opportunities for everyone.

Potential new Team Members looking for specific positions are encouraged to apply online now and attend the job fair to meet with the team, ask questions and learn more about available positions and perks.
